The New Brunswick Arts Board is an arm's length arts funding agency with a legislated mandate to facilitate and promote the creation of art as well as administering funding programs for professional artists in the province. The funding for these programs is provided through the province's Arts Development Trust Fund and by the Department of Tourism, Heritage and Culture. Additional investments were made by the department to the remodeled Artist in Residence program, in answer to the recommendations from the report by the Premier's Task force on the Status of the Artist.
